The employee reports directly to and works under general supervision from a higher-level staff member. Staff supervision is not a responsibility of the class.

Scope of Examination:

A multiple-choice written test will cover knowledge, skills and /or abilities in such areas as:

1. Interviewing

These questions test for the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Questions are also included which present an interviewing situation in which some problem has arisen and your task is to choose the most appropriate course of action under the circumstances.

2. Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

3. Understanding and interpreting numerical data related to community development and housing management

These questions will test for the ability to comprehend and interpret numerical data presented in formats such as tables and charts which are used in the fields of community development and housing management. All the information necessary to answer each question will be provided in the data presented. Familiarity with the specific data involved will not be required to answer these questions. The candidates will be required to perform basic mathematical functions such as addition, subtraction, multiplication and division and to derive averages and percentages. Candidates are encouraged to bring and use their own calculators.

4. Understanding, interpreting and applying housing and community development laws, rules and regulations

The candidate will be provided with a brief reading selection based on or extracted from a passage of legal text. The candidate must read the selection and then answer one or more questions based upon it. All factual information needed to answer the questions is provided in the readings. That the content of the readings may not pertain directly to the duties of each position being tested is immaterial. The questions seek only to determine the candidate's ability to read and comprehend material of a particular style and difficulty.
